

2025 Scholastic Art & Writing Awards

produced by the Art Academy of Cincinnati

A detailed pastel portrait of an elderly woman, likely of East Asian descent, with a warm, smiling expression. She wears a vibrant red headscarf and a necklace of large, dark wooden beads. Her skin is deeply wrinkled, and her eyes are bright. The background is dark and textured.

Congratulations!

Students, Parents, Teachers, and Friends!

Our region's creative community is an incredible force, shaping our past, present, and future with bold ideas and new perspectives. At the Art Academy of Cincinnati, we take great pride in supporting the artists and writers who dedicate their most valuable resource—time—to developing their craft and sharing their vision with the world.

For 100 years, the Scholastic Art & Writing Awards have provided young creatives with a platform to be seen and celebrated. This tradition has connected emerging talent with a legacy of trailblazers like Kay WalkingStick, Sylvia Plath, and Andy Warhol. Today, we're thrilled to carry that tradition forward by hosting the 2025 Regional Scholastic Art & Writing Awards, celebrating the next generation of creators right here in our community.

This year, hundreds of teachers encouraged their students to submit their best work for consideration, resulting in over 3,380 visual art submissions and more than 1,087 written pieces from 7th-12th graders. Each piece was reviewed by a talented and diverse group of jurors—artists, writers, educators, and community leaders—who dedicated their time to recognizing and celebrating the incredible talent in our region.

I want to personally thank everyone who made this event possible: the participants for their creativity and courage, the judges for their thoughtful reviews, the volunteers and student ambassadors for their support, and our Art Academy staff and faculty for their dedication. A special shout-out goes to the Office of Engagement for their leadership in bringing this event together.

To all the young artists and writers who submitted work—congratulations! You've taken an important step in sharing your voice and vision with the world. We are honored to celebrate your achievements and can't wait to see how your creativity will shape the future.

Thank you for believing in the power of art and writing to inspire, connect, and transform.

All my best,

Joe Girandola
President
Art Academy of Cincinnati

ABOUT THE SCHOLASTIC ART & WRITING AWARDS

Since 1923, the Scholastic Art & Writing Awards have recognized the vision, ingenuity, and talent of our nation's youth, and provided opportunities for creative teens to be celebrated. Each year, increasing numbers of teens participate in the program, and become a part of our community—young artists and writers, filmmakers and photographers, poets and sculptors, video game artists and science fiction writers—along with countless educators who support and encourage the creative process. Through the Awards, teens in grades 7–12 from public, private, or home schools can apply in 29 categories of art and writing for the opportunity to earn scholarships and have their works exhibited and published.

The Scholastic Art & Writing Awards are the nation's longest-running and most prestigious scholarship and recognition initiative for creative teens. For 100 years, the Awards have established an amazing track record for identifying the early promise of our nation's most accomplished and prolific creative leaders. Alumni include artists Andy Warhol, Philip Pearlstein, Cy Twombly, Robert Indiana, Kay WalkingStick, Mozelle Thompson, Hughie Lee-Smith, and John Baldessari; writers Sylvia Plath, Truman Capote, Bernard Malamud, Marc Brown, Myla Goldberg, and Joyce Carol Oates; photographer Richard Avedon; actors Frances Farmer, Robert Redford, Alan Arkin, Lena Dunham, and John Lithgow; fashion designer Zac Posen; and filmmakers Stan Brakhage, Ken Burns, and Richard Linklater.

The Awards foster inspiration and talent for creative teens and is the largest source of scholarships for young artists and writers. Through the Scholarship Provider Network, millions of dollars in scholarship funds are awarded to recognized seniors.

ABOUT THE ALLIANCE FOR YOUNG ARTISTS & WRITERS

The Scholastic Art & Writing Awards are presented by the Alliance for Young Artists & Writers. The Alliance is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization whose mission is to identify students with exceptional artistic and literary talent and present their remarkable work to the world through the Scholastic Art & Writing Awards. Through the Awards, students receive opportunities for recognition, exhibition, publication, and scholarships. Students across America submitted nearly 350,000 original works this year in all 29 categories of art and writing.

The Alliance welcomes talented young people into a community of artists and introduces them to the larger world of creativity, criticism, and patronage.

SELECTION OF WORK

The Art Academy of Cincinnati is one of approximately 125 official Affiliate Partners across America. Art and writing submissions are first processed and blindly adjudicated at the regional level by Affiliate Partner organizations. Judging is guided by Scholastic Art & Writing Awards' three core principles – originality, technical skills and emergence of personal vision or voice. This year, professionals from the entire Greater Cincinnati region volunteered their time to review over 2,900 pieces of art, and more than 900 written works.

Students who receive Gold Key, Silver Key, and Honorable Mention Awards are celebrated in local exhibitions and ceremonies across the country. Gold Key works are then automatically advanced to the national level where work is considered by some of the foremost leaders in the visual and literary arts.

REGIONAL AWARDS

Gold Key

The very best works submitted to local programs. Gold Key works are automatically considered for national-level recognition

Silver Key

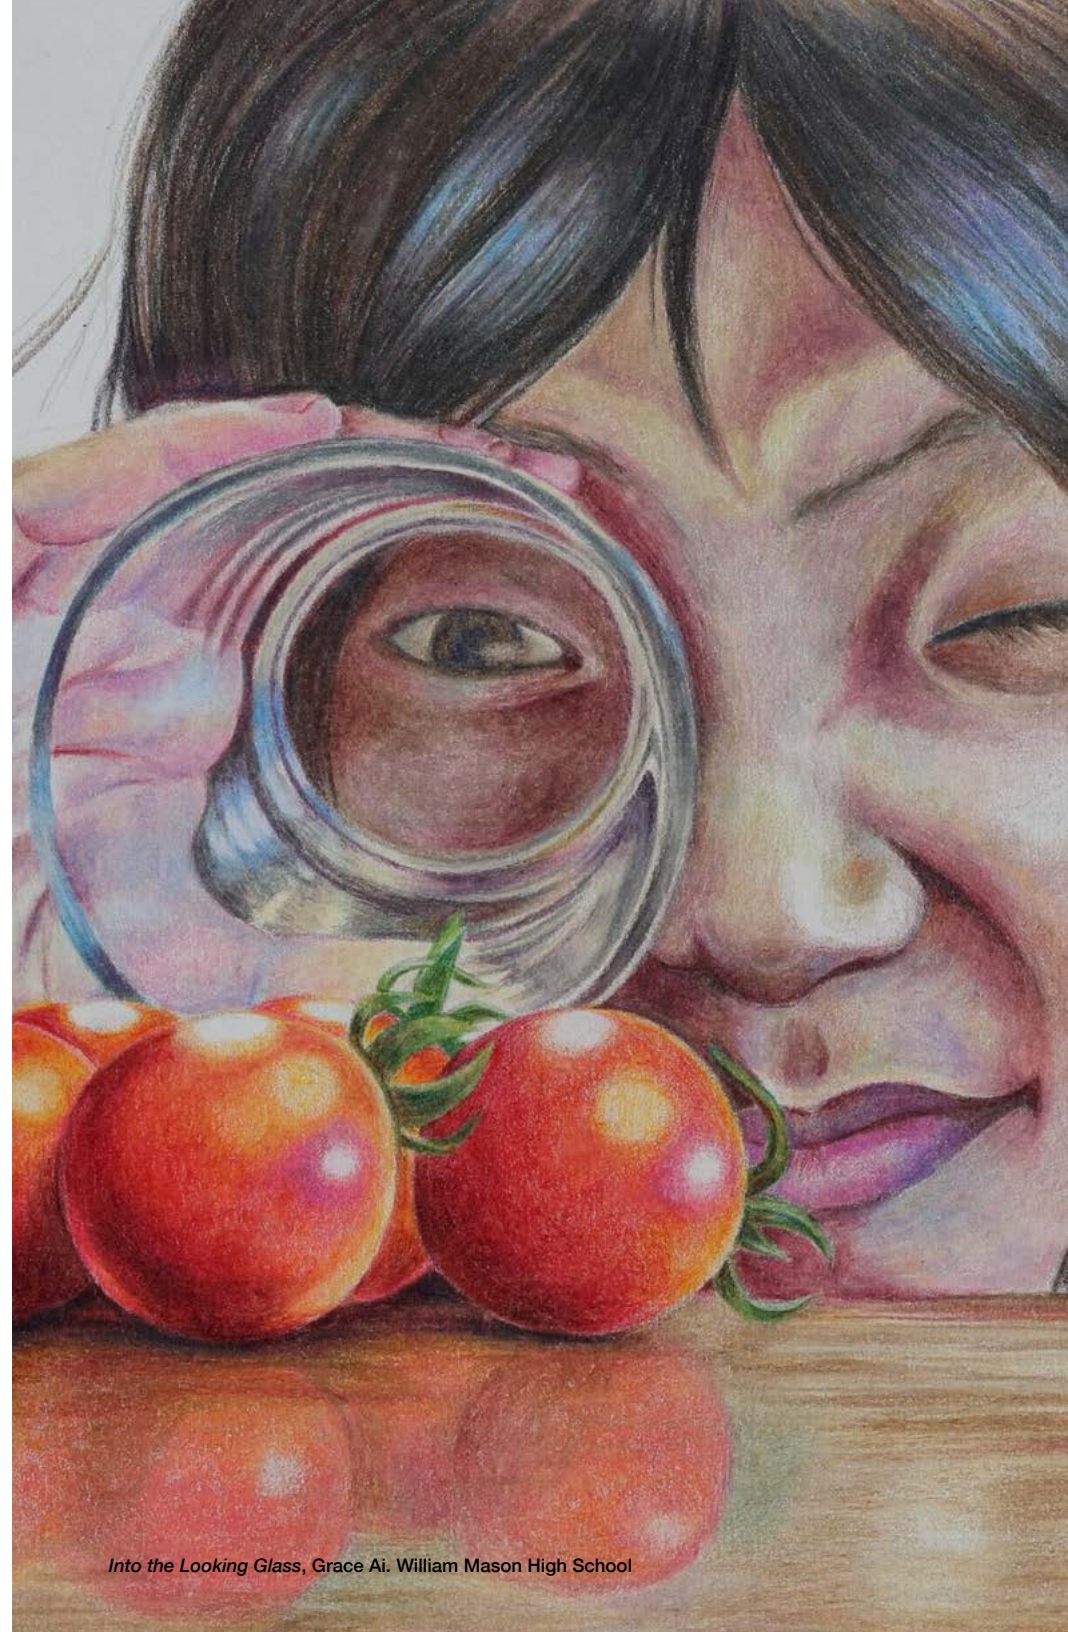

Stand-out works submitted to local programs that demonstrate exceptional ability.

Honorable Mention

Accomplished works submitted to local programs showing great skill and potential.

American Visions & Voices Nominees

Five works, from across all categories and grades, are selected from those earning Gold Keys as the “Best-of-Show” for each local program as nominees for the American Visions & Voices Medals.

Love me like taxidermy, perfect and still,
Give me glassy eyes unblinking, tears which never spill.
Hold me in place with needle and thread,
Fix me in moments, memories long dead

Stitch me together so nothing comes loose
Pose me precisely, make sure I never move.
Please curate my being with utmost care,
My hollow love, my lifeless stare.

Dust me each morning, keep me pristine,
In a world that's frozen, untouched, serene.
No breath, no warmth, but perfect display
Love me like taxidermy, forever this way.

Carson Crane	Silver Key	Poetry

A poem for overflowing ideas
For everything I cannot put into words
For the stories too intricate for pages
For things only felt when not forced to feel

A poem for my favorite peaceful space
Underneath the warm covers
Surrounded by deafening silence
Above the chaos of consciousness

A poem for all my imaginary sanctuaries
From the tip of a snowy, secluded mountain
To a golden field of waist high grass
At the edge of humanity, cloaked in stars

A poem for my midnight adventures
Everything that emerges in the dusk
Something that is hidden by light
Nothing that thrives in the day

A poem for stories unfit for any conversation
Experiences no one may ever discover
Thoughts no one will ever ask for
Predictions no one dare share aloud

A poem for my cherished memories
Rooftop restaurants and shopping malls
Long hikes with panoramic views and cliffs
Freezing lakes, fed by crumbling glaciers

A poem that is for a grade
Yet a poem completely
And entirely
For me
