The Art Academy of Cincinnati is pleased to announce Faculty Exhibition 2026. Occurring every two years, this group show occupies our Pearlman and McClure galleries and offers a glimpse into the personal work of the school's faculty members, whose ongoing commitment to pursuing their own studio interests in a wide range of media fuels the energetic atmosphere of the classroom. For over 150 years, AAC has maintained a faculty comprised of forward-thinking and innovative artists who are eager to make work that engages with the issues and aesthetic concerns of the day. We are proud to continue this vital tradition, fostering creativity among teachers as well as students. Please join us for a public reception on Friday, January 30, 2026.
